

Nonnegative matrices, max-algebra and applications

Ludwig Elsner

University of Bielefeld, Germany

Abstract

We consider nonnegative matrices as matrices in the max-algebra, i.e. we replace in all operations the usual addition by the max-operation. After an overview we consider some newer applications, in particular in the context of the analytic hierarchy process.